

PLAYCATION FAMILY FUN IN LITTLE ROCK...

MORNING MOMENTS:

- It's vacation, so the calories don't count, right? Anytime day or night is a great time to visit Hurts Donut. Not only are they "Open 25 hours a day, 8 days a week," they have pretty much any donut topping you can dream up, including s'mores!
- If donuts aren't your thing, @The Corner, just a few steps away, is a family-owned, modern diner that incorporates fresh, local ingredients into consistently dynamic, innovative menus.
- Dig into what makes Arkansas's wildlife and fisheries special at the Witt Stephens Jr. Central Arkansas Nature Center. You might even see a live alligator!
- Get hands-on at the Museum of Discovery! With more than 90 state-of-the-art interactive science and technology exhibits, this museum is a leading informational science education resource for all ages.

AFTERNOON ADVENTURES:

- All Aboard Restaurant and Grill! Enjoy a meal delivered the FUN way, via the All Aboard train. Family-friendly meals are delivered right to your table by a complex rail system.
- Take a behind-the-scenes tour of the Little Rock Zoo. You'll get up close to lions, tigers and elephants. Don't forget to check out the acclaimed Laura. P. Nichols Penguin Pointe exhibit.
- Learn about Heifer International's mission to end hunger and poverty in the world. You might even see an alpaca!
- Cross the river and visit the Arkansas Inland Maritime Museum, the only place in the world where you can board two floating Naval vessels that bookend World War II: the tugboat Hoga, active at Pearl Harbor, and the submarine USS Razorback, which was in Tokyo Bay during the formal surrender of Japan, ending World War II.

EVENING EXCURSIONS:

- Take a bite out of local eatery David's Burgers. A fresh tasty hamburger made exactly the way you want it with hot fries and fantastic service.
- Test your skills at Big Rock Fun Park! They have exactly what you need for a little family-friendly competition: batting cages, laser frenzy maze, bumper boats, arcade games, go karts, mini golf, mazes and aerial adventures.
- Close out the night with a treat from Loblolly Creamery. They use fresh, locally sourced ingredients to produce small-batch ice creams, sorbets, fizzy sodas and other sweet treats. Added bonus: Loblolly has a wide selection of dairy-, nut- and sugar-free treats that are so good, you'll swear they are the real deal.
